Information

St Andrew's Society Of Central Illinois

Founded in 1987, the St. Andrew's Society was established as a not-for-profit organization to fulfill 3 primary goals...

1. To educate the general public and Society members in Celtic (Scottish, Irish, and Welsh) heritage.
2. To continue the traditions and customs associated with all Celts such as national dress, music, dance, language and history which make us distinct among Americans.
3. To pursue charitable causes for the benefit of the community.

Membership is open to anyone interested in Celtic heritage regardless of age, sex, race or religion.

This program is partially supported by a grant from the Illinois Arts Council

Our Society Groups

- 1. Highland Games & Celtic Festival
This committee organizes all aspects of our annual festival held the 3rd Saturday of May.
- 2. Pipes and Drums
World class highland bagpipe and drum band engaging in performances and competitions throughout the Midwest in order to promote and perpetuate our Celtic heritage through music.
- 3. Celtic Dancers
Our dance group studies and performs traditional Scottish and Irish dances to promote and perpetuate our Celtic heritage in the art of dance. The dancers compete individually at highland games throughout the Midwest and even in Scotland.
- 4. Ancient Athletics
This group is dedicated to excellence in the performance of the ancient highland athletic events such as caber toss, sheaf toss and stone throw among others. They compete at highland games throughout the Midwest and stage educational demonstrations of the events.

Members also pursue interests in harp, fiddle, Gaelic language and other aspects of Celtic heritage
